Dating back to the 1800s, The Engineer gets its name from one of Britain's most famous civil engineers, Isambard Kingdom Brunel. Instrumental in the design and construction of the Great Western Railway and the SS Great Britain, Brunel's offices are said to have been upstairs in The Engineer, and his silhouette is still featured on the pub's swing sign to this day.

Where table service is offered, a discretionary service charge of 10% may be added.
